

STABLE MAP

Boone County Historical Society's Inaugural

HIGH SPIRITS FARM
12054 S. HARDWICK LN.
ASHLAND

BRENDA BENNER STABLES
6901 N. OAKLAND GRAVEL RD.
COLUMBIA

FOX RUN STABLES
2910 W. AKEMAN BRIDGE RD.
COLUMBIA

JIM DUDLEY QUARTER HORSES
8600 E. HWY AB
COLUMBIA

STEPHENS COLLEGE EQUESTRIAN CENTER
201 OLD HWY 63 N.
COLUMBIA

*Schedules are tentative and subject to change without notice.
Tour at your own pace, in the order you choose.
All presentations begin promptly on the hour.*

Representatives of the Boone County Historical Society and the Missouri Horse Shows Association will be at each venue to assist you and answer questions.

Most importantly, have fun! and drive safely!

*Beginning on October 18, bring or mail your ticket to the Boone County Historical Society to redeem a 50% discount on a first-time,
one year's membership: $20 individual, $30 family*

3801 Ponderosa St Columbia, MO 65201
573.443.8936 | www.boonehistory.org

2015 | Boone County Stables Tour

October 17
10am - 3pm

FEATURING

Brenda Benner Stables
Fox Run Stables
High Spirits Farm
Jim Dudley Quarter Horses
Stephens College Equestrian Center

Brenda Benner Stables

6901 N. Oakland Gravel Road, Columbia
(573-474-4046)

A full-service barn, specializing in riding and driving lessons, training, and sales. Also standing the American Saddlebred stallion, Globetrotter's Ally Oop.

Directions: From I-70, take 63 North to Route B. North on Route B to Oakland Church Rd. Turn left (west). At first stop sign, turn left onto Oakland Gravel Rd. Stables are on the right, just past the church.

SCHEDULE

10 a.m. - BABIES!! Prized stallion Ally Oop and his champion babies.

11 a.m. - The Hackney Pony—small but mighty!! Brenda and amateur owners work with World and National Champion Hackney ponies.

Noon - American Saddlebred Western Pleasure Horses—Local riders and horses who won the William Shatner Western Pleasure qualifying classes and Finals showcase beauty and relaxed fun, all rolled up in one.

1 p.m. - Riding Lesson. Adult and child riding lesson demo and tips.

2 p.m. - Pleasure Horses!! Brenda's riders and drivers show the variety of disciplines and attire for the pleasure division.

Concessions available at this stable by: The Red Riders

Fox Run Stables

2910 W. Akeman Bridge Rd., Columbia
(573-355-0678)

A full-care horse boarding facility providing Dressage, Show Jumping, & Eventing lessons, plus shows and clinics. Other amenities include riding arenas, trails and jumping, and hacking fields.

Directions: From I-70, take 63 North to Hinton Rd. West on Hinton Rd. to VV. South on VV to Akeman Bridge for 2.5 miles OR Stadium/Route E North for 6.5 miles to Akeman Bridge. East on Akeman Bridge 2.8 miles.

SCHEDULE

10 a.m. - Individual training and Exercising—Fox Run boarders will work with their horses in riding areas throughout the farm.

11 a.m. - Pas de Deux—In the indoor arena, experience a “Pas de Deux,” a a dressage “dance”, set to music and featuring Lora Blair and Karin Loftin.

Noon - Show Jumping—Learn about the art and science of show jumping, in the outdoor arena or the cross-country jumping field.

1 p.m. - What is Eventing?—Learn all about Eventing from the Hinkson Valley Pony Club members.

2 p.m. - USPC Games—Have fun and frolic the Pony Club way!

Concessions available at this stable by: The Hinkson Valley Pony Club

High Spirits Farm

12054 South Hardwick Ln., Ashland
(573-657-4622)

A premier training and sales facility for World & National Champion American Saddlebred horses and Hackney Ponies. Riding lessons also available.

Directions: From I-70, take 63 South. Turn east on Angel Ln., then north on Hardwick Ln. to High Spirits Farm first entrance. Park next to indoor arena building.

SCHEDULE

10 a.m. - Horse Shows 101—Watch a demo and learn about all types of horse shows from our expert trainers.

11 a.m. - Experience World and National Champion driving horses and ponies.

Noon - Tour of historic Walnut Hill Farm and the original home of legend Tom Bass, with current owner Anna Marie Knipp.

1 p.m. - Tour of historic Walnut Hill Farm and the original home of legend Tom Bass, with current owner Anna Marie Knipp.

2 p.m. - Tour of historic Walnut Hill Farm and the original home of legend Tom Bass, with current owner Anna Marie Knipp.

Concessions available at this stable by: Smokin' Chicks BBQ

Jim Dudley Quarter Horses

8600 East Hwy AB, Columbia
(940-727-1824)

Home to National Champion Reining Horses. Provides training and instruction to horses and riders from novice through open divisions. Jim has judged the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship horse shows and has judged and competed at the highest levels in Reining Horse and Paint Horse competitions

Directions: From I-70, take Hwy 63 South to the Deer Park Store J-turn exit to Hwy AB (about 2 miles south of KOMU-TV) Take the J-turn to travel north on 63 about 100 yards before exiting right (east) on AB. The Stables are 1.2 miles on the right.

SCHEDULE

10 a.m. - Reining--Watch patterns and maneuvers with World Champion “Tullula Can Hula,” and others.

11 a.m. - Training—Learn the process with “Tullula Can Hula,” and others.

Noon - Showcase—Maneuvers from “Tullula Can Hula” and other champions.

1 p.m. - Dance--“Tullula Can Hula” dances again with Jim aboard.

2 p.m. - Finale--“Tullula Can Hula” closes out the show.

Concessions available at this stable by: The Eagle Scoop Ice Cream

Stephens College Equestrian Center

207 Old Rte. 63 North, Columbia
(573-590-2557)

College-based stables providing instruction in all disciplines throughout the school year to Stephens College students as well as community youth/adults.

Directions: From I-70, take 63 S. to Broadway exit. Go west on Broadway to Old 63 N. Turn right (north) and stables will be on your left.

SCHEDULE

10 a.m. - Tour-- Sharon Marohl provides a review of the history of Stephens College's Equestrian program.

11 a.m. - Hunters and Jumpers Demo--Professor Sara Linde Patel and students.

Noon - Western Riding Demo--Professor Sarah Denninghoff and students.

1 p.m. - Saddle Seat Riding Demo--Professor Kelly Hulse and students.

2 p.m. - Tour-- Sharon Marohl provides a review of the history of Stephens College's Equestrian program.

Concessions available at this stable by:

Buy your tickets TODAY!

ADVANCE TICKET PURCHASE LOCATIONS

Commerce Bank

9th St., Brown School Rd., & Hy-Vee

McAdams' Ltd.

1501 Old 63 S, Columbia

Boone County Historical Society

3801 Ponderosa, St, Columbia

Adults: $20

Children 7-14: $10

Children 6 & Under: Free

All proceeds benefit
BCHS, a 501(c)(3)
corporation.