Horse Show Membership Information

Horse Show Series Fees – The regular show fee is required for the first horse show in a series. Subsequent horse shows are allowed a $10 discount per horse show for Two Day, Three Day and more shows only. There is no discount for One Day shows. Under no circumstance will shows be granted recognition after competition has been held. *It is strongly recommended that all fees and applications be submitted no later than 30 days prior to the horse show date. If you pay by PayPal, you will need to add a 3% fee plus a $0.30 charge to each transaction.

Double Points Horse Shows - are double the original show membership fee. (Hunter/Jumper and Show Horses & Ponies only)

Liability Insurance – MHSa must be furnished with evidence of the horse show's liability insurance policy. A current copy of the certificate of insurance must be sent to the Show Membership Secretary before the competition is held. E-mail copy is permissible.

MHSa Website posting –The website posts all MHSa recognized horse shows free of charge. Once the show recognition fees are paid, send a digital copy of your prize list to the MHSa webmaster. Also, MHSa will send your prize list to the MHSa membership. Just send your prize list to the MHSa Horse Show Membership Secretary in digital format, and it will be forwarded to your exhibitors.

Horse Show Memberships are non-transferable. An individual membership is the property of the named individual regardless of the source of payment and is non-transferable.

Horse Show Membership may be cancelled, but refunds will not be made.

New Horse Shows are vital to the health of any organization so please let us know if you are a new or renewing member. If you are a new horse show member, MHSa welcomes you!
